This company performed to a crowded house last evening. Parquette, dress circle and gallery were packed. Female minstrels are novelties in this section of the Union; but; judging from the reception last night, not a displeasing intowation. The reperfore, as usual in misstrel performances, consisted in singing, dancing, sketches from Ethiopian life, etc. The vocal music was unexceptionally good. One of the sweetest ballads that we have ever heard was the "Valley of Charmonie," as sung by Miss Elina Love. Zuella, female gymnast, is a host herfell. The performance on the trapeze was excellent, and the indian club exhibition a marvel of grace and feminine strength. The Love Sisters are skillful jig dancers. The performance closed with Ixion, a musical burlesque, and was well put on the stage and creditably sustained.

rites, the Saxons were accustomed to celebrate at this time of the year, and on ascount of which the month of April was styled Eostermonath in their calendar.
